

IQ BackOffice Partners with Intacct to Offer Complete Cloud-Based Full Service Accounting Processes and Technologies

EL SEGUNDO, Calif., Jan. 16, 2015 /PRNewswire/ -- IQ BackOffice, a leading global accounting and human resources outsourcer, today announced a new partnership with Intacct, a leading provider of cloud financial management and accounting software. As part of the partnership, IQ BackOffice joins the Intacct Accountants Program, a joint venture between Intacct and CPA.com (an AICPA company), a network of top accounting and finance and accounting business process outsourcing firms offering accounting services using a specialized version of Intacct's cloud financial applications optimized for use with multiple clients.

In addition to enjoying the benefits of becoming an Intacct Accountants Program member, IQ BackOffice will integrate Archimedes, its enterprise process management software, with Intacct to be offered on the Intacct Marketplace (<http://marketplace.intacct.com/>). The integration of both platforms will seamlessly join Intacct's cloud financial management and accounting applications with IQ BackOffice's cloud process management technology, which helps IQ BackOffice clients oversee and manage their accounts payable, accounts receivable, payroll and full service accounting processes.

"Selecting Intacct as a trusted partner was a natural decision that will enhance the way we deliver our best-practice processes, services, and cost savings to our clients," said David Schnitt, President & CEO of IQ BackOffice. "We're thrilled to embark on this partnership to see its effects on our business, as well as to bolster the efficient back office processes we custom design with our clients."

Intacct is the only cloud accounting software company to be appointed a preferred provider of financial applications by the AICPA. IQ BackOffice will use Intacct's capabilities to deliver both financial and operational information and reports, including cloud-based drill-down financial statements, in real-time to clients.

"There is a natural synergy between IQ BackOffice and Intacct, as our systems complement each other and provide a powerful solution for joint customers," said Kevin Cumley, Director of Accountant's Program at Intacct. "Both companies are focused on helping customers increase efficiency and drive increased growth, and we look forward to working with IQ BackOffice to help joint customers better manage their business."

"We are extremely excited with the addition of IQ BackOffice to our Intacct Accountants Program! IQ BackOffice brings a scope and depth of knowledge that will elevate the experience for their many clients and prospective clients." said Matthew Robinson, National Sales Manager at CPA.com.

Intacct accounting software also integrates seamlessly with other third party applications such as CRM and payroll, allowing IQ BackOffice to customize the solution to each client's industry and unique requirements, whether that be restaurants and hospitality, manufacturing, real estate and many others. The resulting partnership will enhance IQ BackOffice clients' visibility over their financial processes while delivering 99.97% accuracy and up to 68% savings to their clients.
